

TRANSITION
TRAINING CENTRE

Educational Individual Plan

- Develop the performance of the trainees so that the trainee can formulate the individual plan in terms of time organization and formulation of educational goals according to different scientific school. To be familiar with practical application of the models of the individual educational plan and the ability to develop methods of evaluation and evaluation and determine time.
- Practical application of all stages and steps of the implementation of the individual plan so that the trainee can form a model of the individual plan that formulated his idea and based on the skills gained in the process of practical application.

Module 1: Identify the importance of the individual educational program.

Module 2: Clarifying the content of the individual educational program

Module 3: Determining the current level of students

Module 4: Formulation of Educational Objectives

Module 5: The difference between the educational plan and the educational plan

Module 6: Strategies for Building the Educational Program

Module 7: Practical Application of the Programs

32002688

17562929